Opportunities for Rural Based Candidates in UPSC Examination

494. SHRI SAMAR MUKHERJEE : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that: due to English medium of various examinations conducted by Union Public Service Commission, many rural candidates do HOT succeed in the tests ;

(b) if so, what is the percantage of such failures :

(c) whether it is also a fact that in those tests the percentage of failures is more among SC/ST candidates ;

(d) if answers to (a), (b) and (c) above are in affirmative what steps Government are taking to ensure that rural based candidates and candidates belonging to SC/ST communities get better opportunities in the UPSC examinations ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN TOE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA) (a) to (d) The most important examination conducted by Union Public Service Commission, i.e., Civil Services (Main) Examination is not confined to English medium alone. Candidates also have the choice to appear for the examination in any of the languages mentioned in the VIIIth Schedule to the Constitutioin. As regards the question of rural candidates, in the absence of universally accepted criteria for differentiating between rural and urban candidates, no systematic study as regards their relative rates of failure has been possible. The Union Public Service Commission however, makes all efforts to ensure that the schemes of their examination, do not get weighted in favour of candidates from a particular region or
